GIRL SUES FOR $50,000; JILTED, SHE DECLARES

Miss Marion Murphy Alleges Gordon E. Law Broke Promise to Marry Her.

Marion M. Murphy, twenty years old, through her mother, as guardian, began an action to-day for $50,000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage against Gordon E. Law, of No. 113 West Fifty-seventh Street. The plaintiff is a daughter of the late Robert Murphy, of No. 130 West Eighty-fourth Street.

In the summons and complaint filed, it is charged that the promise of marriage was made in March, 1916, and that the betrothal was broken in the same month of the following year. According to the papers, the young woman asked Law last month why he would not set the day and he "absolutely refused."

The papers were served upon

The papers were served upon Mayer L. Haiff, of No. 37 Wall Street, counsel for the defendant.
